

Application

I. Explanation

1. Certain punishable offenses, such as slander, property damage, trespassing and certain cases of bodily damage will be pursued only if the injured party (in the case you) desires it and expresses his desire at the appropriate time in the form of an application for criminal proceedings. Only then is punishment possible.
2. If you are not interested in pursuing the case, you can waive the right to institute criminal proceedings. Such a waiver is irrevocable.
3. If you are still undecided, you can wait until later to decide for or against instituting criminal proceedings.(However, this must be done within three month.)
4. Application for the institution of criminal proceedings has no bearing on possible civil claims for damages.
